Nasser Advogados was founded in 2008 with the commitment to provide legal services with excellence.

We do our utmost to combine a deep knowledge of law with a clear perception of practical constraints at stake.

Throughout these years of teamwork, Brazilian and foreign companies of various sizes and sectors trust us with their issues, problems, and crises situations.

Our practice in several areas is organized around four major axes: Business Law, Dispute Resolution, Public Law, and International Law.

These major axes comprise the different specialties of our professionals. They also express our goal to provide complete solutions that combine the different specialties.

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Supporting clients to meet legal requirements and comply with environmental standards, planning of precautionary programs for companies of all sectors and sizes, and defending clients in administrative and judicial proceedings.

See

INTERNATIONAL TRADE

The firm has an outstanding performance in the area of International Trade. Practice can be divided into the following areas: Commercial Defense, International Contracts, and Business Negotiations. The area also focus on customs issues, related to the support in import and export activities, including administrative and judicial measures in matters of tax classification, tariff changes, import licensing, export control, tax deficiency notices, and other issues.

See

INTERNATIONAL

Support to companies and States in the analysis of international treaties and rules and their applicability to Brazilian or other countries' national laws, assisting clients to understand the regulatory frameworks to which they are subject.

See

COMPETITION LAW

Practice in administrative processes before the Administrative Council for Economic Defense (CADE). We also act preventively, providing guidance on the obligation or not to notify mergers to CADE and with respect to practices that could constitute anticompetitive practice.

See
